

ASTARTE Suites

Astarte's turquoise infinity whirlpool abuts the Aegean Sea. All suites have their own private Jacuzzi tub (below), some of which feature panels encrusted with Swarovski stones. Soft color palettes and diaphanous drapings throughout set the tone for relaxation (opposite, top and bottom).

During their precious down time, guests can relax and unwind next to Astarte's stunning turquoise swimming pool, which overlooks the Aegean Sea's tranquil blue waters and nearby rocky cliffs.

For delectable dining, Astarte offers discreet room service, which most guests enjoy in the privacy of their own balcony. The Morning Star pool bar offers light fare and a variety of refreshing drinks.

Leisure and cultural options abound nearby, such as in Akrotiri, an ancient city buried and preserved by volcanic ash—known as the Pompeii of the Greek islands—and at Red Beach and White Beach, the ultimate locales for a spectacular day of fun in the sun.

Leisure and cultural options abound nearby, such as in Akrotiri, an ancient city buried and preserved by volcanic ash—known as the Pompeii of the Greek islands—and at Red Beach and White Beach, the ultimate locales for a spectacular day of fun in the sun.

Accommodations: Two Junior, two Senior, two Executive and three Honeymoon suites (one with private pool), all with volcano and caldera views.
Rates: From €330-€850 for two, including taxes, private transfer from/to airport and port, breakfast, champagne and fresh fruit upon arrival.
Location/Airport: 15 minutes from port, 20/airport.
Recreation: Large pool with Jacuzzi, pool bar, snack bar, sunbathing deck, 'LAVA' lounge cafe-bar (above the pool), boat excursions, massage upon request, private jewelry show, nearby beaches. Just minutes away from the Late Minoan City of Akrotiri, wine tasting at traditional wineries.
Room Amenities: All suites have volcano and caldera views. Heated indoor or outdoor Jacuzzis, king-size bed, air-conditioning, satellite LCD TV,

Special Offer

For guests with a five-night stay or more, we offer either a romantic dinner, a soothing massage or a sea excursion.

isoclima windows, CD/MP3 players, direct-dial phones, mini-bar, safe deposit box, bathrobes, hair dryer, slippers, Hermès cosmetics. Large private veranda or terrace where breakfast may be served.
Address: 84700 Kaldera Akrotiri, Santorini Island, Greece
Phone: (30) 22860 83 388 Fax: (30) 22860 82 585
Website: www.astartesuites.gr
E-mail: info@astartesuites.gr
GDS: Sabre, GZ 74336; Galileo/Apollo, GZ 22836; Worldspan, GZ JTRAS; Amadeus, GZ JTRASU.
General Manager: George and Kostantinos Moschotis
Affiliations: Boutique Hotels & Resorts International; Emerald Collection

Endless blue sky and sea greet visitors to Santorini, Greece, home to Astarte, a boutique, all-suite getaway that beckons guests to forget their stresses.

Astarte comprises nine suites—Junior, Senior, Executive and Honeymoon—each of which is individually decorated and offers the finest amenities. Junior Suites each feature one bedroom, a separate sitting area, a bathroom with walk-in shower, a heated indoor Jacuzzi tub and a private veranda featuring a designated sitting area and spectacular volcano and caldera views. Senior Suites are slightly larger and boast the same features as Junior Suites. Larger still are the Executive Suites, which, in addition to the amenities of the Junior and Senior Suites, also feature a separate dining area and a large outdoor lounge. The most luxurious choice, Honeymoon Suites feature either a small private pool or additional bathroom, as well as more living space. Magic is in the details at Astarte, beginning with the twin-